THIS MASTER SERVICES AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of August 11, 2025 (“Effective Date”), by and between Stratin LLC, a California LLC (the “Company”), and Stephen Mock (“Consultant”). Each of the Company and Consultant are sometimes referred to hereinafter individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties.”

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Company desires to engage Consultant to provide the Services (as defined below), and Consultant desires to provide the Services to the Company, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, the respective agreements hereinafter set forth and the mutual benefits to be derived herefrom, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, each of the Company and Consultant agrees as follows:

TERMS

1. ENGAGEMENT; SERVICES; DELIVERABLES

(a) Services. The Company hereby engages Consultant to provide the services set forth on a specific Statement of Work, in the form attached as Exhibit A (each, a “Statement of Work”), and such other services as may be reasonably requested by the Company from time to time during the Term (collectively, the “Services”). The Services may include the delivery of the certain deliverables (the “Deliverables”) set forth in a Statement of Work. Consultant agrees to provide the Services during the Term in a diligent and conscientious manner and to the best of Consultant’s ability, in accordance with applicable law, best practices in the industry, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Consultant agrees to devote such time, resources, and personnel as is reasonably required to fulfill Consultant’s duties in connection with the Services on a timely basis.

(b) Flow-Down Terms. Consultant acknowledges and agrees that certain Services performed under this Agreement may be subject to the terms and conditions imposed upon Company by its clients, customers, or third parties (the “Flow-Down Terms”). Such Flow-Down Terms are incorporated by reference into this Agreement and are set forth in Exhibit B. Consultant agrees to comply with all applicable Flow-Down Terms as if they were directly imposed on Consultant. In the event of any conflict between the Flow-Down Terms and the terms of this Agreement, the Flow-Down Terms shall control.

(c) Delivery. No later than the applicable times set forth on a Statement of Work, Consultant shall design, develop, and deliver to the Company, for its approval, the Deliverables. Promptly after the delivery of each Deliverable, and in no event later than 15 days after such delivery is completed (as applicable, the “Acceptance Period”), the Company shall inspect such Deliverable to verify that such Deliverable reasonably conforms to the Company’s specifications and is otherwise satisfactory to the Company in its reasonable discretion.

(d) Acceptance/Rejection. In the event that the Company determines during an Acceptance Period that the applicable Deliverable does not conform to its requirements or is otherwise unsatisfactory to it, or if the Company requires more time to inspect the Deliverable, the Company shall promptly notify Consultant of such determination in a written notice setting forth a reasonable description of the nonconformities or amount of additional time the Company requires for inspection (a “Rejection Notice”). In the event that the Company informs Consultant that a Deliverable is acceptable, or if the Company otherwise fails to deliver a Rejection Notice prior to the expiration of the applicable Acceptance Period, then such Deliverable shall be deemed to be accepted.

(e) Resolution. Promptly following Consultant’s receipt of a Rejection Notice during an Acceptance Period, the Parties shall meet and confer to agree in good faith upon the timing schedule and other commercially reasonable terms by which Consultant shall perform additional Services in order to remedy the nonconformities set forth in such Rejection Notice. Upon completion of such additional Services, Consultant shall re-deliver the applicable Deliverable to the Company in accordance with clause (b) above.

2. COMPENSATION

(a) Consulting Fee. During the Term, and as consideration for the Services to be provided hereunder, the Company shall pay Consultant a fee (the “Fee”), calculated in accordance with the Statement of Work. Consultant shall provide the Company an invoice as stated in the SOW, and the Company shall pay the same within thirty (30) days after its receipt and acceptance of such invoice.

(b) Business Expenses. The Company shall reimburse Consultant for all reasonable and necessary business and travel expenses actually incurred by Consultant in performing the Services; provided, that Consultant submits to the Company appropriate supporting documentation for all such expenses, and obtains prior written approval from the Company’s President for reimbursement of any expense.

(c) Tax Matters. The Company and Consultant agree that Consultant shall be treated as an independent contractor, and not as an employee of the Company, with respect to the services performed hereunder. All fees payable to Consultant hereunder shall be paid in full, without any withholding, deduction, or offset of any foreign, federal, state, or local income taxes, employment taxes, or other withholdings. Consultant shall be solely responsible for and shall pay all income taxes, payroll taxes, and other withholdings (both employer and employee portions) with respect to all amounts paid by the Company, and agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against any and all loss, liability, claim, cause of action, suit, fine, damage, judgment, cost or expense (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) arising out of or in connection with any tax liability or other tax obligations relating to payments made to Consultant pursuant to this Agreement.

3. TERM; TERMINATION; SURVIVAL

(a) Term. This Agreement shall commence immediately and shall continue thereafter through and including the date on which this Agreement is terminated by either Party (the “Term”).

(b) Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement (i) at any time and (ii) for any reason upon 5 business days’ prior written notice to the other Party, unless termination is specified in a Statement of Work, in which case the Statement of Work shall prevail.

(c) Survival. The provisions of Sections 2(c), 3(c), 4, 6, 7, and 8 shall survive any termination or expiration of this Agreement. The termination or expiration of this Agreement shall not adversely affect the rights of any Party to the extent accrued prior to such termination or expiration.

4. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

(a) Work.

(i) Definition. All inventions, discoveries, improvements, developments, concepts, trade secrets, original works of authorship, formulas, work products, drawings, know-how, designs, algorithms, computer programs, (including, but not limited to, source code, object code routines, macros, etc.), databases, strategies, processes, procedures, methodologies, and techniques, and all documentation relating to the foregoing, whether or not patentable or registrable under copyright or similar laws, which Consultant, alone or jointly, during Consultant's service to and relationship with the Company (including, but not limited to, the period prior to the execution of this Agreement), creates, conceives, develops, reduces to practice, or causes another to create, conceive, develop, or reduce to practice, during the course of providing the Services or based on or with use of the Company's resources, including, but not limited to, the Deliverables, will collectively and individually hereinafter be referred to as the "Work."

Consultant agrees to disclose promptly in writing to the Company all inventions created, conceived, developed or reduced to practice by Consultant during Consultant's engagement by the Company, whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, and whether or not Consultant believes such inventions are subject to this Agreement, to permit a determination by the Company as to whether or not the inventions should be the property of the Company. Any such information will be received in confidence by the Company.

(b) Proprietary Rights.

(i) Work Made for Hire. Consultant understands and hereby agrees that (A) to the extent permitted by law, applicable portions of the Work shall be deemed a "work made for hire" within the meaning of that term under United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., as amended or superseded, and the corresponding provisions of other jurisdictions, as applicable, and (B) the Company shall be deemed the exclusive author and owner of all rights, title and interest in and to such Work in any and all media, languages, territories and jurisdictions throughout the world, now known or hereafter devised, including, but not limited to, any and all works of authorship, copyrights and copyright registrations.

(ii) Assignment. Consultant hereby assigns and transfers to the Company, effective as of the date of its creation, any and all rights, title and interest Consultant may have or may acquire in and to the Work (including, but not limited to, any Work not deemed, for whatever reason, to have been created as a work made for hire), in any and all media, languages, territories and jurisdictions throughout the world, now known or hereafter devised, including, but not limited to, any and all inventions, patents, patent applications, copyrights, copyright registrations, trade secrets, know-how and other intellectual property rights in the Work, and the right to prosecute and recover damages for all past, present and future infringements or other violations of the Work. To the extent that any of the rights contemplated to be transferred hereunder cannot be transferred under applicable law or otherwise, Consultant hereby grants to the Company a perpetual, worldwide, royalty free, unrestricted license to the same. All rights and licenses granted by Consultant pursuant to the Agreement will be deemed to be, for purposes of Section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., licenses of rights to “intellectual property” as defined under Section 101(35A) of the Bankruptcy Code, and software is, and will be deemed to be, “embodiment[s]” of “intellectual property” for purposes of same.

(iii) Use of the Work. The Company shall have the unrestricted right to use, display, publish, perform, record, copy, broadcast, transmit, distribute, augment, subtract from, modify, distort, translate, transfer, combine with other information or materials, create derivative works based on, sell, or otherwise exploit for any purpose, the Work and any portion thereof, in any manner or media throughout the world, as the Company may in its sole discretion determine. Consultant hereby irrevocably waives and assigns to the Company any and all so-called moral rights or “droit moral” Consultant may have in or with respect to any Work. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained herein will require the Company to exercise or exploit any of the Company’s rights in or to the Work or provide Consultant with credit in respect thereof.

(c) Consultant’s Use of Work. Consultant shall not at any time without the Company’s prior written consent, except as required in the performance of Consultant’s responsibilities on behalf of the Company, (i) reproduce, display, publish, perform, record, broadcast, transmit, distribute, modify, translate, combine with other information or materials, create derivative works based on, exploit commercially, disclose, or otherwise use the Work, in any manner or medium whatsoever; or (ii) disclose or publicize the terms of this Agreement.

(d) Disclosure and Delivery.

(i) Work. Consultant shall, during the term of Consultant’s relationship with the Company, maintain current and accurate records of all Work. Upon any termination of Consultant’s relationship with the Company for any reason, and/or upon the Company’s request, Consultant shall promptly (A) disclose to the Company all Work, and (B) deliver to the Company all records, writings, notes, sketches, drawings, diagrams, prototypes, photography, memoranda, discs, tapes, CD-ROMs, source code, and any other documentation or other tangible materials or media in Consultant’s possession or control that in any way embody, comprise, incorporate, or relate to the Work, including all copies thereof in Consultant’s possession or control.

(ii) Further Documentation. Upon the Company’s request, Consultant shall promptly execute and deliver to the Company any and all necessary documentation, including, but not limited to, assignments, declarations for patent applications, copyright registrations, or such other documents as are necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement and to vest in the Company ownership of all Work. Consultant hereby appoints the Company as Consultant’s attorney-in-fact with full power to execute, acknowledge, deliver and record any and all such documents Consultant fails to execute within 5 business days after the Company’s request therefor. This appointment shall be a power coupled with an interest.

(e) Proprietary and Confidential Information. Consultant agrees to retain in confidence all information relating to the Company or its Affiliates, investors, or equity holders, including, but not limited to, any of the Company’s proprietary information, technical data, trade secrets, know-how, research, product plans, products, services, works of original authorship, photographs, negatives, digital images, software, computer programs, ideas, research, developments, inventions (whether or not patentable), processes, formulas, technology, designs, drawings, engineering, hardware configuration information, forecasts, strategies, marketing, finances or other business information (“Proprietary Information”). Except to the extent reasonably necessary in the performance of Consultant’s obligations to the Company and solely for the Company’s benefit, Consultant agrees not to (i) use the Proprietary Information, or (ii) disclose the Proprietary Information to any third party, except to the extent required pursuant to a judicial or governmental requirement or order under law (in which case, Consultant shall first inform, in writing, the Company and cooperate with the Company to contest such disclosure or seek confidential treatment thereof). All right, title and interest in and to the Proprietary Information will remain the exclusive property of the Company. Nothing in this Agreement will be construed to grant Consultant any rights to or license under the Proprietary Information or under any related patent, patent application, trademark, copyright, know-how, or other intellectual property of the Company.

(f) Nature of Proprietary Information; Injunctive Relief; Attorneys’ Fees. Consultant acknowledges and agrees that the Proprietary Information is of a special, unique, unusual, extraordinary and intellectual character that money damages would not be sufficient to avoid or compensate for the unauthorized use or disclosure of the Proprietary Information or the breach of any of the covenants contained in this Agreement; and that specific performance, injunctive relief, and other equitable relief would be appropriate to prevent any actual or threatened use or disclosure of the Proprietary Information or breach of any of the covenants contained in this Agreement. Consultant also acknowledges that the interests of the Company in and to its Proprietary Information and the performance by Consultants of its covenants hereunder may be irreparably injured by disclosure of such Proprietary Information. The remedies stated above may be pursued in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity for breach of this Agreement, and the Consultant agrees to waive any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy. Should litigation be instituted to enforce any provision of this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover all costs, including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees, cost of investigation and cost of settlement.

(g) Return of Proprietary Information. The Company may elect at any time to terminate further access to its Proprietary Information. Upon request, Consultant will return to the Company all Proprietary Information in any form and promptly destroy any and all material or information derived from the Proprietary Information, including any copies, electronic embodiments and notes thereof.

(h) Non-Solicitation. During the Term and for 1 year thereafter, Consultant shall not encourage or solicit the services of or hire any employee, independent contractor or consultant of the Company.
